The Madison Jobe Senior Center is a recreation facility for active adults 50 years of age and older. It is operated by the City of Pasadena Parks and Recreation Department and is located near the intersection of Red Bluff and Thomas, close to Hwy 225. Whether you are working, semi-retired, or retired, we offer a variety of great leisure, educational and personal development opportunities for you. Our programs offer activities that encourage and support health, creativity, and social interaction for active adults.

Why not take the time to try something new?

Lou Ann Stories

This month has certainly been a whirlwind of activity and planning here at Madison Jobe but I feel blessed to have the best staff in the world. They have all worked above and beyond at every level this month and it has literally been nonstop for us all since before the pageant but this staff at Madison Jobe just keeps on working hard for your benefit.

I guess the old saying that you can't out give God is certainly true here at Madison Jobe.

Each and every staff member has just done remarkable things this month.

Jesus has been working like crazy to get photos, videos and descriptions of all our fun events put onto our webpage and our webpage then links up to the City's main webpage under the Parks and Recreation Department. He's also been working hard to get our sponsors to underwrite our Astros tickets for our seniors, so you can thank him for working so hard to put that together.

Eric has been working hard to do a million things as well. He always comes up with the funniest ideas for our parties and such and it was his idea to come dressed as Austin Powers for the Hysterical Historical Dance at the Convention Center.

Karen has gotten us some remarkable new sponsors for all our events and has saved the city money and the staff some time and a great amount of extra work. She has also been working hard on the Newsletter and getting us some great speakers and Bingo sponsors.

Victoria and Sandra and Julie just work away at making sure all the miles of red tape paperwork and all the party and event details are taken care of, which is a huge task beyond what most would believe.

And Elsa has worked way above and beyond on our grant program. And she's had so much to do that the entire staff has pitched in and help. During all this she gave me the funniest towel that was a flamingo handtowel that had a big ole fluffy flamingo on it that said, "Stand Tall and Stand Out". We just had the greatest laugh over that one because I love flamingos.

JJ keeps us all picked up and cleaned up around here and does a stellar job with that, too. We can be a messy bunch but he never complains.

We are making a few changes so we don't get all the deadlines of the grants heaped on top of the Pageant demands heaped on top of the Easter holidays, so we will be changing the Ms. Senior Pasadena Pageant to June instead and we are all happy and excited about that change.

I have had some of the nicest things happen this month and some doozies too when my car trunk got rained on and all wet while I was putting my stuff in it from the Hysterical Historical Dance and ruined my purse and everything inside it.

By the way, if you missed the Hysterical Historical Dance, you really missed a great party and your chance to see Eric dressed up as Austin Powers and co emcee and myself dressed up as a go-go girl with go-go boots as co-emcee. You also missed a great band with Randy Meadows and lots of extra musicians and fun people dressed in the best costumes. A great time was had by all and it benefitted our Heritage Park and Museum, our Pasadena Historical Society that does so much for our Museum, and the Crown Hill Cemetery Association that has done so much to save our historic cemetery. The Mayor and Ginny were also there dancing the night away and even our fearless Parks and Recreation Director, Jed Aplaca showed up as Jed Clampett. And yes, the band, Eric and I sang the Beverly Hillbilly's song for him when he came on-stage. The weather was a bit of a damper but everyone finally got home but Sandra had to camp out at Whataburger until 2 am until the flood waters went down so she could make it through. The cool thing is that we were all checking on each other until 2 am when Sandra got home, to make sure we were all ok and the staff were all offering their homes to other staff members if they got stuck.

I do have to tell you about an incident that had me in tears today. This morning one of the seniors came to tell me about her purse getting stolen right from under her at a local supermarket. She had placed it in her car seat while she was loading groceries and someone came up to the side of her car and opened the door and just grabbed it and ran. She was pretty upset about it, just telling me about it and all she has to do now to get everything replaced. I told her about how a cross bag will save her from that happening again or at least it deters purse thieves because they will move for an easier victim because if the purse is over your head and across your body then it is really difficult to steal. They can cut it off, but likely, they will go for someone who is wearing a purse on their shoulder. Well, I felt so bad for her that I gave her my new brown purse that was a cross body purse. (I had to change purses to the brown purse earlier that I had bought that was just like my black purse when my black purse got ruined in the downpour at the dance). So I just put all the items I had into a big baggie and I was carrying my baggie out laughing because I had to go by the Parks office to get Jed's signature on some papers. Well, I guess one of the staff told Sandra or somehow she knew that I had given this senior my purse and she met me at the door with a brand new black purse that was identical to my favorite one that had been drowned in the downpour. Well, my heart was so full and soooooo happy that it just overflowed with tears of happiness at her generosity and caring.

There I had just given away my new purse and here Sandra gives me the same purse but in my favorite color. Soooo fabulous, I just cried. My heart was so full of joy that it just spilled over and came out of my eyes as tears of happiness. "You Can't Out-give God!"

I have had so many blessings this month, among them is the greatest blessing of all: the incredibly talented, extremely gifted, smart, funny, fun filled, dedicated and hard-working staff here at Madison Jobe that works so hard to make your senior center the best it can be. So when you see them, let them know how much they are appreciated. It means the world for us to see the smiles on your faces and hear the words from you that you are having a good time.

Thank you Lucy and Virginia for all that you do to make us all proud of our museum and heritage.
